

A Nondenominational Service Provided By:

LAKE ARROWHEAD COMMUNITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
LACPC MEMORIAL GARDEN LAKE ARROWHEAD, CALIFORNIA
POLICY ADOPTED BY SESSION OF THE CHURCH

THE MEMORIAL GARDEN IS SET ASIDE FOR THE INTERMENT OF CREMATED REMAINS AND FOR MEDITATION. IT IS MAINTAINED BY DONATIONS AND FEES.

Interment of ashes in the Memorial Garden is intended for residents of these mountain communities.

For those wishing to have ashes interred, the church is available to perform a full burial service or a short and simple service of committal. Ministers of other denominations may preside as well with a PC(USA) co-presider present from another denomination in full communion with the PC(USA).

There is a recommended tax deductible donation of $300 for members of LACPC or their immediate family. There is a recommended tax deductible donation of $700 for all others. Donations above this amount are welcome. All monies received are used to maintain the Garden. Additionally, an honorarium to the clergy person presiding at the service is customary.

Interments are in an unmarked and undesignated location in the center, circular, paved area of the Garden. The interments are recorded in LACPC's official records. An engraved plate with the person's name and year of birth and death is included in the donation.

For additional information and the necessary forms, please contact the church (909) 336-1502.
